Reflections from Fr. Daryl

And He Shall Be Called . . .

We are all familiar with passage where Jesus asks the disciples the questions, "Who do people say that I am?" and "Who do you say that I am?" In the rectory, I have a picture that lists the many ways people have referred to Jesus and the titles given to him. Here is the list:

Advocate • Lamb of God • Judge • Lord of Lords • The Resurrections and the Life • Man of Sorrows • Shepherd and Bishop of Souls • Head of the Church • Master • Faithful and True Witness • Rock • The Door • High Priest • Living Water • Bread of Life • Rose of Sharon • Alpha and Omega • True Vine • Messiah • Teacher • Holy One • Mediator • The Beloved • Branch • Carpenter • Good Shepherd • Light of the World • The Word • Image of the Invisible God • Chief Cornerstone • Savior • Servant • Author and Finisher of our Faith • Everlasting Father • Shiloh • Lion of the Tribe of Judah • I Am • King of Kings • Prince of Peace • Bridegroom • Only Begotten Son • Wonderful Counselor • Immanuel • Son of Man • Day Spring • King of the Jews • Prophet • Redeemer • The Amen • Anchor • Bright Morning Star • The Way, the Truth and the Life • JESUS CHRIST

As we read through this list, we are familiar with some and others might be new to us. While there are many names listed, many more could easily be added to the list, some from others as from ourselves. In our personal relationship with our Lord, we will call upon in with a name or a title that we are most comfortable with. Such as My Healer, because of a spiritual or physical healing one has received from him. The name or title we use for our Lord can guide us in our prayer life through which we deepen this relationship.

In our day to day lives, when we address our physician as Dr. we enter into a specific encounter. When we call to talk to a Teacher, the encounter will be much different. The same will hold for us in our relationship with our Lord. The name or title we use will lead to a specific encounter with our Lord. Peter's response to our Lord was clear, "You are the messiah, the Son of God". Jesus tells him that no human being has revealed this to him but this response comes from God. God is ready to do the same for us.

STEWARDSHIP

James writes in his letter how generous of a gift faith is: In James 2:5, he wrote: "Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" Discipleship does not have to be complicated, and it is not reserved for the elite. In the Gospel today, we see proof of this in a man whose ears and mouth are "opened" so that he can hear and speak plainly. In a physical sense, his handicap was removed. In a spiritual sense, he was freed from the deafening lies of the world that were inhibiting his being "fully alive" as a disciple. Faithful stewards realize that to be "fully alive" means putting the world aside and living only for the riches of the promised kingdom realized both now and in eternity.

PARISH HALL CLEANING

Thank you to all those who came out to clean the hall. As a group we were able to accomplish so much in so little time. Thank you for all of your hard work. It was greatly appreciated. It's a blessing to have a community where everyone is willing to pitch in and help out.

CYM

High school CYM will meet next on Wednesday, Sept. 19th at 6:40 for Rosary and Mass.

The 8th grade CYM will meet next on Sept. 26th from 7-8:30pm in the parish hall basement.

We will also be selling mums for the month of September after weekend Masses as a fundraiser for CYM
Young Adult Core Team members are needed:

- 1 woman and 2 men
- Volunteers (anyone college-age or older) needed to be role models for our high school youth
- A group of parishioners that prays specifically for the spiritual formation of our youth. The CYM will, in turn, pray for you.

If you can help with any of these activities, please call or text Maggie Wilson at 620.365.0380
