Reflections from Father Daryl

*'Cause every night, I lie in bed
The brightest colors fill my head
A million dreams are keeping me awake
I think of what the world could be
A vision of the one I see
A million dreams is all it's gonna take
Oh, a million dreams for the world we're gonna make.*

These lyrics from the song "A Million Dreams" from the movie, "The Greatest Showman" can be for us a great reminder of all that we can be as disciples of Christ. If we go back to our childhood days, we can fully relate to these words. As young children we are filled with dreams of what we could be and what we could accomplish in our life. The imagination of children is endless. Yet, as we get older, we settle into our lives and our imagination becomes cloudy and stagnated by the world in which we live.

The same thing can take place with our lives of faith. We can settle into routines which can prevent us from fully realizing the potential our faith can give to us. When we seek Christ each day, we can have a million dreams that can lead us to not only a deeper faith, but a greater desire to share our faith with those we encounter each day. These dreams of living a faithful life to the gospel are what will bring us to fully experience the life and joy that Jesus offers us.

While we may have many dreams of our earthly life and desires, the dreams of our spiritual lives will bring us our true and lasting peace through our days here on earth and for eternity with Jesus in heaven. We all have a vision of the world we want to live. The vision becomes a reality when Christ is the one who guides and directs us in living the life he wills for us. What world will you make in union with Christ?

Several years ago, it was suggested to me that I put together the many articles I had written for the Sunday bulletin. While at the time, it seemed like a dream to do this, it has now become a reality. I have completed the work and the book is now in print. I have given the work the title "Living Life in God's Presence". There are copies of the book in the church office or they can be ordered through Amazon.
