Reflections from Father Daryl

Service

A lady of high rank went out begging on a miserably cold day. She wore ragged clothes, put a shawl on her head, and carried a basket. She wanted to test the charity of her neighbors. At some houses she was given things of absolutely no value; at others she was spurned with harsh words. Only in one place was she received with kindness, and that was at the cottage of a poor man. Here she was taken into a warm room and fed a warm meal.

The next day all the people the lady had visited were unexpectedly invited to the castle, where they were led by servants to the spacious dining hall. Place cards showed each guest where to sit at the table. On the plate before each person was the same thing that person had given to the disguised lady the day before. Some plates were completely empty. Only the poor man was served a heaping plate of appetizing food.

Then the countess entered the dining room and explained to the guests, "Yesterday, to test your charity, I went about the village dressed as a beggar. Today I am serving you the same thing you gave me yesterday." (From - Celebration: A Creative Worship Service)

After Peter and the other apostles have been fishing all night and catch nothing, Jesus instructs them to put out into deep water. Peter initially does not want to do so, but because it is the Lord, he faithfully follows the instructions of Jesus. Having done so, Peter makes the biggest catch ever, filling both boats to the point of sinking. It is with such reluctance that often times we too will respond to the invitation of Christ to put out into the deep for a catch.

Jesus presents himself to us through the people we encounter each day. With each encounter, Jesus is giving us the opportunity to respond to his command to love. In the people we encounter, they may simply need a smile to bring them cheer, they may need a word of encouragement or they may be in need of something to get them through the day. Jesus will provide us with everything we need to respond to the needs of those we encounter. Jesus has taught us that whatever we do to the least of our brothers and sisters, we do to him. When our day of judgement comes, what will we have on our plate at the banquet in heaven?
