Reflections from Father Daryl

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved. (Acts 2: 42 – 47)

We find in these words of the Acts of the Apostles the early Christian communities coming together for the Sunday celebration. Guided by and enlightened by the Holy Spirit, they gathered for prayer and the breaking of the bread and would share all things in common, insuring that no one among the faithful was in need. It is in these gatherings that we find the foundations of today's parish communities taking shape.

In the early days of the Church, communities were formed and grew when people were baptized in water and the Spirit and began to gather to grow in their new faith in the Lord. With this, a new community or parish would be formed. Today, most come to join a community that is already established. Within the parish, there are many ministries and activities already active. New parishioners are guided by the Holy Spirit to understand how their gifts can be offered within the life of the parish.

Through full participation in the life and ministry of the parish community, we come to share in the life and joy of Christ our shepherd. The early Christians were found "praising God and enjoying favor with all the people." When we get involved in the ministries and activities of the parish, we too will find a joy that cannot be replaced, for it is a joy that can only be found in our relationship with Christ.

As good and faithful stewards, we will seek ways to become involved, using our gifts and talents to bring glory to God. God has extended the invitation to all of us to be one with him just as he and the Father are one. In union with him, we are to follow the path of service to one another set forth by his example to us. We enter into God's life when we become active participants in the parish. May Christ fill us with his abundant life.
