Reflections from Father Daryl

Evangelize

After Jesus returned to heaven, he and the Archangel Gabriel were talking. Even in heaven Jesus bore the marks of the crucifixion. Gabriel said, "Master, you must have suffered horribly! Do people know and appreciate how you love them and what you did for them?" Jesus replied, "Oh, no; not yet. Right now only a few people in Palestine know." Gabriel was perplexed: "Then what have you done to let everyone know about your love?" Jesus answered, "I have asked Peter, Andrew, James, John, and a few more friends to tell others about me. Those who are told will tell others about me, and yet others still others until the last man and the last woman in the farthest corner of the earth will have heard the story of how I gave my life for them because I love them so much." Gabriel frowned and looked rather skeptical. "Yes, but what if Peter and the others grow weary? What if the people who come after them forget? Surely you have made other plans?" Said Jesus, "Gabriel, I haven't made any other plans. I'm counting on them."

Just before Jesus ascended into heaven, he commanded the apostles to make disciple of all nations. Calling on them to bring the good news of the Gospel to all the world. In our world today, we often hear that our faith is to be kept separate from our daily living. Jesus has a much different expectation for us. He expects our life of faith to be shared with all that we encounter in our lives. While we are not called to go from town to town to evangelize, we are called to do so within our families and communities.

Here in Andale, our Catholic Church is the only church. We can become comfortable and have a sense that all in our community share our faith and we will not recognize the opportunities we have invite others to become a part of our parish, or at least to invite them to learn more about our Catholic faith. In September we will begin the RCIA for those who are interested in learning about and possibly becoming Catholic. Quite often, when someone is asked why they didn't become Catholic, they respond, "Because no one asked me." Are we willing to fulfill the plan of Jesus as he described it to Gabriel in the story above? With home can we share our faith within our family or community? Many opportunities are presented to us on a regular basis. Ask our Lord to recognize the opportunities when they come before
